About the survey

Government budget decisions – what taxes to levy, what services to provide, and how much debt to take on – have important consequences for all people in society. When governments provide information and meaningful channels for the public to engage in these decisions, we can better ensure public money is spent on public interests.

The Open Budget Survey (OBS) is the world’s only independent, comparative and fact-based research instrument that uses internationally accepted criteria to assess public access to central government budget information; formal opportunities for the public to participate in the national budget process; and the role of budget oversight institutions, such as legislatures and national audit offices, in the budget process.

The survey helps local civil society assess and confer with their government on the reporting and use of public funds. This 9th edition of the OBS covers 125 countries.

Visit www.internationalbudget.org/open-budget-survey for more information, including the full OBS methodology, the 2023 Global Report, findings for all surveyed countries, and the Data Explorer.

What changed in OBS 2023?

Bolivia has decreased the availability of budget information by:

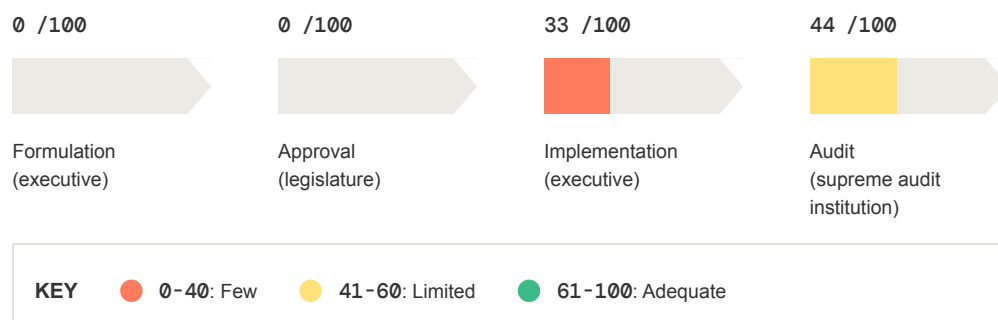

- Producing the Executive's Budget Proposal for internal use only.

Recommendations

Bolivia should prioritize the following actions to improve budget transparency:

- Release all documents comprising the Executive's Budget Proposal (including Title I, Title II, and institutional budget details of the General State Budget) on the official website before the legislature enacts the proposal.
- Publish the Pre-Budget Statement, Citizens Budget and In-Year Reports online in a timely manner.
- Produce and publish the Mid-Year Review and Audit Report online in a timely manner.
- Include in the Year-End Report comparisons between planned expenditures and actual outcomes, comparisons between planned revenues and actual outcomes, comparisons between borrowing estimates and actual outcomes and comparisons between planned nonfinancial outcomes and actual outcomes.
- Include in the Enacted Budget expenditure data under a functional classification and information by sector.

Extent of opportunities for public participation in the budget process

Recommendations

Bolivia's Ministerio de Economía y Finanzas Públicas has established public consultations during budget implementation but, to further strengthen public participation in the budget process, should also prioritize the following actions:

- Pilot mechanisms to engage the public during budget formulation.
- Expand mechanisms during budget implementation to engage any civil society organization or member of the public who wishes to participate.
- Actively engage with vulnerable and underrepresented communities, directly or through civil society organizations representing them.

Bolivia's Asamblea Legislativa Plurinacional should prioritize the following actions:

- Allow members of the public or civil society organizations to testify during its hearings on the budget proposal prior to its approval.
- Provided the Audit Report is produced and published online in a timely manner, allow members of the public or civil society organizations to testify during the hearings on its findings.

Bolivia's Contraloría General del Estado has established mechanisms for the public to assist in developing its audit program. It should prioritize the following actions to improve public participation in the budget process:

- Establish formal mechanisms for the public to contribute in the audit process by providing avenues for the public to offer relevant information, insights, or evidence for ongoing audit investigations.

Budget Oversight

The OBS examines the role that legislatures and supreme audit institutions (SAIs) play in the budget process and the extent to which they provide oversight; each country is scored on a scale from 0 to 100 based on 18 equally weighted indicators. In addition, the survey collects supplementary information on independent fiscal institutions (see Box).

The legislature and supreme audit institution in Bolivia, together, provide limited oversight during the budget process, with a composite oversight score of 41 (out of 100). Taken individually, the extent of each institution's oversight is shown below:

Audit oversight

KEY ● 0-40: Few ● 41-60: Limited ● 61-100: Adequate

Recommendations

Bolivia's Asamblea Legislativa Plurinacional provides limited oversight during the planning stage of the budget cycle and weak oversight during the implementation stage. To improve oversight, the following actions should be prioritized:

- Provided that a Pre-Budget Statement is produced and made available in a timely manner, the legislature should debate budget policy before the Executive's Budget Proposal is tabled and approve recommendations for the upcoming budget.
- Legislative committees should examine the Executive's Budget Proposal and publish reports with their analysis online.
- A legislative committee should examine in-year budget implementation and publish reports with their findings online.

- In practice, ensure the legislature is consulted before the executive shifts funds specified in the Enacted Budget between administrative units or reduces spending due to revenue shortfalls during the budget year.
- Provided that an Audit Report is produced and published in a timely manner, a legislative committee should examine the document and publish a report with their findings online.

To strengthen independence and improve audit oversight by the Bolivia Contraloría General del Estado, the following actions are recommended:

- Ensure audit processes are reviewed by an independent agency.
- Produce and publish the Audit Report of the annual budget online and in a timely manner.

The emerging practice of establishing independent fiscal institutions

Bolivia does not have an independent fiscal institution (IFI). IFIs are increasingly recognized as valuable independent and nonpartisan information providers to the Executive and/or Parliament during the budget process.

These indicators are not scored in the Open Budget Survey.*

Methodology

- Only documents published and events, activities, or developments that took place through 31 December 2022 were assessed in the OBS 2023.
- The survey is based on a questionnaire completed in each country by an independent budget expert:
René Martínez
Fundación Jubileo

presupuestos@jubileobolivia.org.bo
- To further strengthen the research, each country's draft questionnaire is also reviewed by an anonymous independent expert, and in Bolivia by a representative of the Ministerio de Economía y Finanzas Públicas.
