About the survey

Government budget decisions – what taxes to levy, what services to provide, and how much debt to take on – have important consequences for all people in society. When governments provide information and meaningful channels for the public to engage in these decisions, we can better ensure public money is spent on public interests.

The Open Budget Survey (OBS) is the world’s only independent, comparative and fact-based research instrument that uses internationally accepted criteria to assess public access to central government budget information; formal opportunities for the public to participate in the national budget process; and the role of budget oversight institutions, such as legislatures and national audit offices, in the budget process.

The survey helps local civil society assess and confer with their government on the reporting and use of public funds. This 9th edition of the OBS covers 125 countries.

Visit www.internationalbudget.org/open-budget-survey for more information, including the full OBS methodology, the 2023 Global Report, findings for all surveyed countries, and the Data Explorer.

Transparency

This part of the OBS measures public access to information on how the central government raises and spends public resources. It assesses the online availability, timeliness, and comprehensiveness of eight key budget documents using 109 equally weighted indicators and scores each country on a scale of 0 to 100. A transparency score of 61 or above indicates a country is likely publishing enough material to support informed public debate on the budget.

Guinea-Bissau has a transparency score of 5 (out of 100).

Recommendations

Guinea-Bissau should prioritize the following actions to improve budget transparency:

- Publish the Enacted Budget online in a timely manner.

- Produce and publish the Pre-Budget Statement, Executive's Budget Proposal, Citizens Budget, In-Year Reports, Mid-Year Review and Audit Report online in a timely manner.
- Include in the Year-End Report comparisons between borrowing estimates and actual outcomes, comparisons between planned nonfinancial outcomes and actual outcomes and comparisons between the original macroeconomic forecast and actual outcomes.

Public Participation

The OBS assesses the formal opportunities offered to the public for meaningful participation in the different stages of the budget process. It examines the practices of the central government’s executive, the legislature, and the supreme audit institution (SAI) using 18 equally weighted indicators, aligned with the Global Initiative for Fiscal Transparency’s Principles of Public Participation in Fiscal Policies , and scores each country on a scale from 0 to 100.

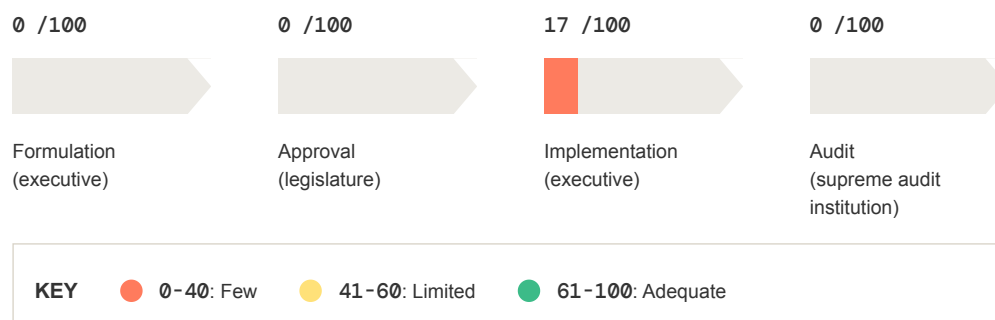

Guinea-Bissau has a public participation score of 4 (out of 100).

Extent of opportunities for public participation in the budget process

Recommendations

Guinea-Bissau's Ministério das Finanças has established public consultations during budget implementation but, to further strengthen public participation in the budget process, should also prioritize the following actions:

- Pilot mechanisms to engage the public during budget formulation.
- Expand mechanisms during budget implementation to engage any civil society organization or member of the public who wishes to participate.
- Actively engage with vulnerable and underrepresented communities, directly or through civil society organizations representing them.

Guinea-Bissau's Assembleia Nacional Popular was dissolved on May 16, 2022, for the entirety of 2022. During 2022 opportunities for public hearings related to the approval of the annual budget, which were previously provided when the legislature was in session, were not possible. Following a second dissolution on 4 December 2023, it is urgent that it be reinstated in order to restore the normal checks and balances of Guinea Bissau's budget process. After its reinstatement, furthermore, the following actions should be prioritized to improve opportunities for public participation:

Guinea-Bissau's Assembleia Nacional Popular should prioritize the following actions:

- Allow members of the public or civil society organizations to testify during its hearings on the budget proposal prior to its approval.
- Allow members of the public or civil society organizations to testify during its hearings on the Audit Report.

Guinea-Bissau's Tribunal de Contas should prioritize the following actions to improve public participation in the budget process:

- Establish formal mechanisms for the public to assist in developing its audit program and to contribute to relevant audit investigations.

Budget Oversight

The OBS examines the role that legislatures and supreme audit institutions (SAIs) play in the budget process and the extent to which they provide oversight; each country is scored on a scale from 0 to 100 based on 18 equally weighted indicators. In addition, the survey collects supplementary information on independent fiscal institutions (see Box).

The legislature and supreme audit institution in Guinea-Bissau, together, provide weak oversight during the budget process, with a composite oversight score of 11 (out of 100). Taken individually, the extent of each institution's oversight is shown below:

Recommendations

As Guinea-Bissau's Assembleia Nacional Popular was dissolved for the most part of 2022, it provided weak oversight during the planning stage of the budget cycle and weak oversight during the implementation stage. Following its last dissolution on 04 December 2023, it is urgent that the National Popular Assembly be reinstated in order to restore the normal checks and balances of Guinea Bissau's budget process. After its reinstatement, furthermore, the following actions should be prioritized to improve legislative oversight:

- The National Popular Assembly should debate budget policy before the Executive's Budget Proposal is tabled and approve recommendations for the upcoming budget.
- The Executive's Budget Proposal should be submitted to legislators at least two months before the start of the budget year.

- Legislative committees should examine the Executive's Budget Proposal and publish reports with their analysis online.
- The National Popular Assembly should approve the Executive's Budget Proposal before the start of the budget year.
- A legislative committee should examine in-year budget implementation and publish reports with their findings online.
- In practice, ensure the National Popular Assembly is consulted before the executive shifts funds specified in the Enacted Budget between administrative units; spends any unanticipated revenue; or reduces spending due to revenue shortfalls during the budget year.
- Provided that it is produced and published, a legislative committee should examine the Audit Report and publish a report with their findings online.

To strengthen independence and improve audit oversight by the Guinea-Bissau Tribunal de Contas, the following actions are recommended:

- Require legislative or judicial approval to appoint and remove the head of the supreme audit institution.
- Ensure the supreme audit institution has adequate funding to perform its duties, as determined by an independent body (e.g., the legislature or judiciary).
- Ensure audit processes are reviewed by an independent agency.

The emerging practice of establishing independent fiscal institutions

Guinea-Bissau does not have an independent fiscal institution (IFI). IFIs are increasingly recognized as valuable independent and nonpartisan information providers to the Executive and/or Parliament during the budget process.

These indicators are not scored in the Open Budget Survey.*

Methodology

- Only documents published and events, activities, or developments that took place through 31 December 2022 were assessed in the OBS 2023.
- The survey is based on a questionnaire completed in each country by an independent budget expert:
Fodé Caramba Sanhá and Adolfo Gomes Sá
Movimento Nacional da Sociedade Civil para Paz, Democracia e Desenvolvimento (MOVIMENTO) da Guiné-Bissau
Rua 10: Severino Gomes de Pina (antigo Ministério da Função Pública) - Caixa Postal: 858 – Bissau

adolfoeugeniagomes@gmail.com
- To further strengthen the research, each country's draft questionnaire is also reviewed by an anonymous independent expert, and in Guinea-Bissau by a representative of the Ministério das Finanças.
