Section Two: The Executive's Budget Proposal

Notes on abbreviations:

BY = budget year (year for which the budget proposals are being made)

BY+1 = one year beyond the budget year

BY-1 = one year before the budget year

Note 1: The Open Budget Survey research process was carried out over a 12-month period and the final version of the Open Budget Questionnaires reflect decisions made after multiple rounds of discussions between Survey researchers, peer reviewers, and the International Budget Partnership (IBP) (in several countries these decisions also considered comments received from governments). When peer reviewers or governments agreed with the answers provided by researchers, they often provided no comment. Thus for many questions, the section in the questionnaire that should contain peer reviewer comments is left blank. However, if the government did not provide any comments to a question (because it did not dispute the answer), the section within the questionnaire that is meant to reflect government comments specifies the answer that the government agreed with (by default).

Since the IBP continued its discussions with the researchers even after receiving peer reviewer and government comments, for some questions these discussions resulted in a mutual decision to change the answers, even if the peer reviewers and governments agreed with the original answer provided by the researcher. Such changes may have happened as a result of:

1. A more consistent application of the Survey methodology;
2. New information identified by the researcher or by IBP that had a bearing on the answer for a particular question; or
3. Decisions made to ensure cross-country comparability of answers.

For more information on these changes for any question please write to info@internationalbudget.org.

Peer Reviewer One Comment: The Law n° 84-17 of 1984 which details how the budget is to be organized, prepared, approved by the Parliament and executed gives authority to the Parliament to approve the expenditures by each administrative unit for recurrent expenditures and by sector for investments; however, revenues have to be approved globally. In addition, any change in the amount of budget expenditures or revenues during the year has to be submitted to Parliament through a Loi de finances complémentaire (supplementary budget law). So the Parliament has the power but with "some limitation" and not a "very limited power." I suggest improving the score to "b."

Peer Reviewer Two Comment:

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose answer "b" to maintain the consistency of the assumptions used in selecting answers across the countries.

96. Does the executive seek input from the legislature when the executive shifts funds between administrative units (except when the amounts are below a certain minimal level specified in law or regulation)?
- Yes, the executive seeks approval from the legislature before shifting funds between administrative units.
 - Yes, the executive gives prior notification to the legislature before shifting funds, giving the legislature an opportunity to block or modify the proposed adjustment.
 - Yes, the executive seeks legislative approval, but only after the shift of funds has been implemented.
 - No, the executive shifts funds between administrative units without seeking input from the legislature, or the amount allowed under the law or by regulation is significantly large enough to undermine public scrutiny and accountability (please describe arrangements below).
 - Not applicable/other (please comment).

Comment:

The executive shifts funds between administrative units without seeking input from the legislature. According to article 32 of the law 84-17, dated 7 July 1984 related to the Finance Acts: "The budgetary credits allocated to a specific chapter of the current expenses can be modified in mid-course by a transfer decree or a credit transfer, made by the Minister of Finance." On the other hand, according to article 36: "The allocation between the sectors of allotted credits for capital expenditures of the annual plan is determined by the finance act. Modifications to this distribution are laid down in accordance with the regulations." This is also valid for the credits allocated for the permits relating to the financing of the annual planned investments, according to article 37.

Researcher Response to this Question was "d"

Peer Reviewer One Comment: A careful reading of law 84-17, and notably its articles 20 to 38 creates several constraints for the executive to shift credits from one unit or from one function or nature of credit to another. Legislative scrutiny of such changes made by the government can be exercised when the draft Budget execution law (which closes the account of a budget year after approval of the Audit board) is discussed in parliament. This is why scoring "d" would not be fair as there are enough limitations.

Peer Reviewer Two Comment:

Researcher Response: I chose my answer because it is very close to the articles 20 through 38 of the Law 84-17 dated July 1984 which deals with this issue of transfer of funds.

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose answer "d" to maintain the consistency of the assumptions used in selecting answers across the countries.

97. During the past year, have there been credible reported instances in which the procurement of goods and services has not followed an open and competitive process in practice?

- a. There were no credible reported instances of procurement failing to follow an open and competitive process in practice during the past year.
- b. The procurement of goods and services frequently followed an open and competitive process in practice, but there were some reported instances of irregularities.
- c. The procurement of goods and service followed an open and competitive process in many instances, but there were significant reported examples of irregularities.
- d. No, the procurement process was not open and competitive in practice.
- e. Not applicable/other (please comment).
