Section Two: The Executive’s Budget Proposal

Notes on abbreviations:
BY = budget year (year for which the budget proposals are being made)
BY+1 = one year beyond the budget year
BY-1 = one year before the budget year

Please mark your answer by placing the appropriate letter in the box to the right of the question. For all answers marked “not applicable/other,” please provide a brief explanation indicating either why the answer choices provided are not applicable or why another response would be more appropriate.
The Executive’s Budget Proposal

Estimates for the Budget Year and Beyond

1. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present expenditures for the budget year that are classified by administrative unit (that is, by ministry, department, or agency)?
   a. All expenditures are classified by administrative unit.
   b. Expenditures are classified by administrative unit, but some small units are not shown separately.
   c. Expenditures are classified by administrative unit, but a significant number of units are not shown separately.
   d. No expenditures classified by administrative unit are presented.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation:
   Information can be found in the document entitled "Functional, economic and administrative classification of the public budget for the year 2007” attached to Part I of the budget proposal for the year 2007.

   Comment:

   Peer Reviewer One Comment:

   Peer Reviewer Two Comment:

2. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present expenditures for the budget year that are classified by functional classification?
   a. All expenditures are classified by functional classification, and the categorization is compatible with international standards.
   b. All expenditures are classified by functional classification, but the categorization is not compatible with international standards.
   c. Some, but not all, expenditures are classified by function.
   d. No expenditures classified by function are presented.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   Citation:
   Information can be found in the document entitled “Functional, Economic and Administrative Classification of the Public Budget for the Year 2007: budget expenditures,” attached to Part I of the budget proposal for the year 2007.

   Comment:
   When the International Monetary Fund’s (IMF) Government Finance Statistics (GFS) was referenced, the functional classification shown in budget proposal did not meet GFS’s requirements.

   Peer Reviewer One Comment:

   Peer Reviewer Two Comment: The functional classification does not meet a number of international standards. The classification is prepared based on Commonwealth Independent States (CIS) standards.
3. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present expenditures for the budget year that are classified by economic classification?

   a. All expenditures are classified by economic classification, and the categorization is compatible with international standards.
   b. All expenditures are classified by economic classification, but the categorization is not compatible with international standards.
   c. Some, but not all, expenditures are classified by economic classification.
   d. No expenditures classified by economic classification are presented.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation:
Information can be found in the document entitled “Functional, Economic and Administrative Classification of the Public Budget for the Year 2007: budget expenditures,” attached to Part I of the budget proposal for the year 2007.

Comment:
When the International Monetary Fund’s (IMF) Government Finance Statistics (GFS) was referenced, the functional classification shown in budget proposal did not meet GFS’s requirements.

Peer Reviewer One Comment:

Peer Reviewer Two Comment: The right answer would be “c.” First, not all expenditure is classified by economic classification in the last budget years due to enormous increasing in the budget revenues. For instance, there is no almost economic classification for construction expenditures. According to the expert calculation about 40 per cent of budget expenditures are not classified by economic classification. Second, the economic classification does not meet a number of international standards. The classification is prepared based on Commonwealth Independent States (CIS) standards.

Researcher Response: There is economic classification for all categories but sub-elements are not completed. So, the right option is “b.”

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose answer, “b” to maintain the consistency of the data across the countries.
4. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present expenditures for individual programs for the budget year?

   a. Program-level data are presented for all expenditures.
   b. Program-level data are presented for at least two-thirds of, but not all, expenditures.
   c. Program-level data are presented, but for less than two-thirds of expenditures.
   d. No program-level data are presented.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation:

Comment:
Programme expenditures are presented unsystematically.

Peer Reviewer One Comment:

Peer Reviewer Two Comment: The best answer would be “d.” Because in the budget packet it is very hard to realize what program expenditure are presented. Beside that no Program Classification is applied in Azerbaijan. According to the GoA, the program classification is scheduled to be applied in 3 years.

Researcher Response: There is some information on program classification. But I agree that we cannot consider this as a full program budgeting. So, in this case we can choose “d.”

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose answer, “d” to maintain consistency with the guidance provided to researchers for correctly completing the questionnaire in the Guide to the Open Budget Questionnaire.

5. In the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation, are estimates of the aggregate level of expenditure presented for a multi-year period (at least two years beyond the budget year)?

   a. Yes, multi-year estimates of aggregate expenditure are presented.
   b. No, multi-year estimates of aggregate expenditure are not presented.
   c. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Peer Reviewer One Comment:

Peer Reviewer Two Comment:
6. In the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation, is more detail than just the aggregate level presented for expenditure estimates that cover a multi-year period (for at least two years beyond the budget year)?

   a. Yes, multi-year expenditure estimates are presented for all individual programs, and for one or more expenditure classification (such as functional, economic, or administrative).
   b. Yes, multi-year estimates are presented for one or more expenditure classification (such as functional, economic, or administrative), but only for some individual programs.
   c. Yes, multi-year estimates are presented, but only for a portion of one or more of the expenditure classifications (such as some functions, or some administrative units) and/or for only some individual programs.
   d. No, multi-year estimates are presented for aggregate expenditure only, or they are not presented at all.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation:

Comment: Multi-year estimates are presented for the aggregate expenditure only.

10. In the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation, is more detail than just the aggregate level presented for revenue estimates that cover a multi-year period (for at least two years beyond the budget year)?

   a. Yes, multi-year revenue estimates are presented for individual sources of revenue, and by revenue classification (such as tax and non-tax).
   b. Yes, multi-year estimates are presented by revenue classification (such as tax and non-tax), but only for some individual sources of revenue.
   c. Yes, multi-year estimates are presented, but only for some individual sources of revenue.

Peer Reviewer One Comment:

Peer Reviewer Two Comment:
11. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present data on the total government debt outstanding for the budget year?

   a. Yes, the data reflect the outstanding debt both at the start of the budget year and at the end of the budget year (and thereby reflect the net borrowing requirement of the budget).
   b. Yes, the data reflect the outstanding debt at the end of the budget year.
   c. Yes, the data reflect the outstanding debt at the start of the budget year.
   d. No, data on the outstanding debt are not presented.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation:
Information on outstanding debt can be found in the document entitled “State of Public Debt of the Azerbaijan Republic as of July 01 2006,” attached to Part II of the budget proposal for the year 2007.

Comment:
In the budget proposal for 2007, information about the outstanding debt is shown for nine months of the present year. We cannot determine the exact amount of the outstanding debt at the start of the budget year, due to having the necessary information for nine months only. The new loans that could be contracted towards the end of the year are not represented.

Peer Reviewer One Comment:

Peer Reviewer Two Comment: A more appropriate response would be “b.” First, general information about total government debt is presented. Information can be found at Finance Documents of Statistic Committee. Second, the Ministry of Economic Development presented the amount of debt and how much will be paid to this direction for the budget year.

Researcher Response: There is information on government debt in Ministry of Finance’s web-site too. We appreciate this improvement.

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose answer, “b” consistent with researcher comment.
12. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present interest payments on the debt for the budget year?

   a. Yes, interest payments on the debt are presented.
   b. No, interest payments on the debt are not presented.
   c. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation:

Peer Reviewer Two Comment:
13. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present information related to the composition of government debt (such as interest rates on the debt, maturity profile of the debt, currency denomination of the debt, or whether it is domestic and external debt) for the budget year?

   a. Yes, extensive information related to the composition of government debt is presented.
   b. Yes, key additional information is presented, but some details are excluded.
   c. Yes, some additional information is presented, but it lacks important details.
   d. No, additional information related to the composition of government debt is not presented.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation:
Information on that can be found in the document entitled “State of Public Debt of the Azerbaijan Republic” attached to Part II of the budget proposal for the year 2007 and “Functional, Economic and Administrative Classification of the Public Budget for the year 2007: Budget Expenditures.”

Comment:
These documents cover the following: payments on interest rates and main debt calculated for external and domestic state debt, expenditures related to domestic and external state debt services, ceilings of external and domestic debt for the budget year, total internal and external state departments, etc. All information but the currency denomination is covered in these documents.

Peer Reviewer One Comment:

Peer Reviewer Two Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “c.” No, maturity of the debt and currency denomination are presented either in the budget or in any supporting documents.

Researcher Response: I agree with choice “c.”
14. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present the macroeconomic forecast upon which the budget projections are based?

a. Yes, an extensive discussion of the macroeconomic forecast is presented, and key assumptions (such as inflation, real GDP growth, unemployment rate, and interest rates) are stated explicitly.
b. Yes, the macroeconomic forecast is discussed and most of the key assumptions are stated explicitly, but some details are excluded.
c. Yes, there is some discussion of the macroeconomic forecast (and/or the presentation of key assumptions), but it lacks important details.
d. No, information related to the macroeconomic forecast is not presented.
e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation:

Comment:
Details such as unemployment rates and interest rates are not presented in the macroeconomic forecast.

Peer Reviewer One Comment:

Peer Reviewer Two Comment: The best answer would be “c.” Only few discussions are held on macroeconomic forecasts, no any information on some key assumptions such as unemployment rate.

Researcher Response: I mentioned lack of info about unemployment rate before. But we can choose “c.”

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose answer, “c” to maintain the consistency of the assumptions used in selecting answers across the countries.
15. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation show the impact of different macroeconomic assumptions (i.e., sensitivity analysis) on the budget (including expenditures, revenues, and debt)?

   a. Yes, extensive information on the impact of macroeconomic assumptions on the budget is presented, including both a narrative discussion and quantitative estimates.

   b. Yes, information is presented, highlighting the impact of the major macroeconomic assumptions, but some details are excluded.

   c. Yes, some information is presented, but it lacks important details.

   d. No, information on the impact of different macroeconomic assumptions on the budget is not presented.

   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation:

Comment: Some analysis exist. But doesn’t show full highlights.

Peer Reviewer One Comment:

Peer Reviewer Two Comment: The appropriate response to this question would be “c.” As mentioned here, only little analysis is presented. Even no sensitivity analysis is done.

Estimates for Years Prior to the Budget Year

18. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present expenditures for the year preceding the budget year (BY-1) that are classified by administrative unit (that is, by ministry, department, or agency)?

   a. All expenditures are classified by administrative unit for BY-1.
   b. Expenditures are classified by administrative unit for BY-1, but some small units are not shown separately.
   c. Expenditures are classified by administrative unit for BY-1, but a significant number of units are not shown separately.
   d. No expenditures classified by administrative unit are presented for BY-1.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Peer Reviewer Two Comment:
19. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present expenditures for the year preceding the budget year (BY-1) that are classified by functional classification?

   a. All expenditures are classified by functional classification for BY-1, and the categorization is compatible with international standards.
   b. All expenditures are classified by functional classification for BY-1, but the categorization is not compatible with international standards.
   c. Some, but not all, expenditures are classified by function for BY-1.
   d. No expenditures classified by function are presented for BY-1.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation:

20. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present expenditures for the year preceding the budget year (BY-1) that are classified by economic classification?

   a. All expenditures are classified by economic classification for BY-1, and the categorization is compatible with international standards.
   b. All expenditures are classified by economic classification for BY-1, but the categorization is not compatible with international standards.
   c. Some, but not all, expenditures are classified by economic classification for BY-1.
   d. No expenditures classified by economic classification are presented for BY-1.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation:
Information can be found in the document entitled “Information about Expected Execution of Public Budget for the first three quarters of 2006, classified by functional, economic and administrative classification,” attached to Part III of the budget proposal for the year 2007.

Comment:
When the IMF’s Government Finance Statistics (GFS) was referenced, the functional classification shown in the budget proposal did not meet GFS’s requirements.

Peer Reviewer One Comment:

Peer Reviewer Two Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “c.” Not all expenditure is classified by economic classification and the economic classification does not meet a number of international standards. The classification is prepared based on Commonwealth Independent States (CIS) standards.

Researcher Response: The more appropriate response should be “b.”

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose answer, “b” to maintain the consistency of the assumptions used in selecting answers across the countries.
21. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present expenditures for individual programs for the year preceding the budget year (BY-1)?

   a. Program-level expenditure data are presented for all expenditures for BY-1.
   b. Program-level expenditure data are presented for at least two-thirds of, but not all, expenditures for BY-1.
   c. Program-level expenditure data are presented, but for less than two-thirds of expenditures for BY-1.
   d. No program-level expenditure data are presented for BY-1.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation:

Comment:
Expenditures are mainly classified by functional, administrative and economic classification. There is only small part classification by program level.

Peer Reviewer One Comment:

Peer Reviewer Two Comment: The right answer would be “d.” In spite of the fact that there is some general program classification, such as education and health, but it is not program-level expenditure data presentation. The GoA does not apply program-level expenditure classification, yet.

Researcher Response: We can choose “d” regarding question 4.

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose answer, “d” to maintain the consistency of the assumptions used in selecting answers across the countries.
22. In the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation, how many months of actual data are reflected in the expenditure estimates of the year prior to the budget year (BY-1)?

   a. All BY-1 estimates have been updated from the original enacted levels to reflect six or more months of actual expenditure.
   b. All BY-1 estimates have been updated from the original enacted levels, but reflect less than six months of actual expenditure.
   c. Some BY-1 estimates have been updated from the original enacted levels to reflect actual expenditure.
   d. The BY-1 estimates have not been updated from the original enacted levels, or no BY-1 estimates are presented.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

   b. Yes, information on the level of debt is presented, but some important details about the composition of the debt are excluded.
   c. Yes, but only information on the level of debt is presented.

   Comment:
   This information does not provide any figures on how much the government is planning to borrow and how much of the debt is to be repaid. The budget does not present a complete picture of the government debt for the year preceding the current budget year.

   Peer Reviewer One Comment:

   Peer Reviewer Two Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “b.” When the budget is submitted to the Parliament, the Ministry of Economic Development discloses this information.

   Researcher Response: I agree with choice “b.”
34. In the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation, what is the most recent year presented for which the debt figures reflect actual outcomes?

   a. Two years prior to the budget year (BY-2).
   b. Three years prior to the budget year (BY-3).
   c. Before BY-3.
   d. No actual data for government debt are presented in the budget or supporting budget documentation.

Citation:
Information can be found in the document entitled “Comparative Table of Indicators of Public Budgets for years 2005-2007,” attached to Part III of the budget proposal for the year 2007.

Comment:
Since this question is about outcomes, we can say that such figures are presented in the document mentioned above. The budget proposal for every year contains information on public debt for the first three quarters of the current year. For example, in budget proposal for 2007, public debt is presented for the January-September 2006 period. No information on forthcoming borrowings and payments is presented to calculate the amount of the debt as on the end of the current year (on the beginning of the new budget year). So we can say that there are no actual outcomes for any of previous years.

Peer Reviewer One Comment:

Peer Reviewer Two Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “c.” information before BY-3 can be found in the supporting documents presented by Ministry of Finance.

Researcher Response: You can find suitable information only for before BY-3.

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose answer, “c” to maintain consistency with the guidance provided to researchers for correctly completing the questionnaire in the Guide to the Open Budget Questionnaire.

Comment:
Only general figures are presented. For instance, transfers from state budget to State Social Protection Fund are generally shown, but no information regarding where and how they will be spent is provided.

Peer Reviewer One Comment:

Peer Reviewer Two Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “b.” Before only general figures were presented. Now information about on extra-budgetary funds, especially State Oil Fund can be obtained even on the internet. Only some details are excluded.

Researcher Response: I agree with choice “b.”

Comment:

Peer Reviewer One Comment:

Peer Reviewer Two Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “b.” Information is presented in the draft law on the state budget, only some details are excluded.

Comment:
There is data on quasi-fiscal subsidies granted to the energy sector in this document. However, only aggregate figures are shown, omitting detailed information. For example, there is no information on inter-enterprise arrears and loans to State Owned Enterprises (SOEs) below market rates by state-owned banks. New government policy reflects willingness on reducing quasi-fiscal activities.

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose answer, “c” to maintain the consistency of the assumptions used in selecting answers across the countries.
50. Does the executive’s budget or any supporting budget documentation present non-financial data, such as the number of beneficiaries, for expenditure programs?

   a. Non-financial data are presented for all programs.
   b. Non-financial data are presented for programs representing at least two-thirds of, but not all, expenditures.
   c. Non-financial data are presented for programs representing less than two-thirds of expenditure.
   d. No non-financial data are presented.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Peer Reviewer One Comment:

Peer Reviewer Two Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “d.” Both the budget document and any supporting documents have never presented number of beneficiaries for the expenditure programs.

Researcher Response: I agree with choice “d.”

51. Are the non-financial data presented useful for assessing how an expenditure program is performing?

   a. The non-financial data are very useful for assessing program performance.
   b. The non-financial data are mostly useful for assessing program performance.
   c. The non-financial data are somewhat useful for assessing program performance.
   d. No non-financial data are provided or they are not useful for assessing program performance.

Peer Reviewer One Comment:

Peer Reviewer Two Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “c.” Because the GoA never presents all conditions of such assistances, no any regular responsibility for the government to do it. There is not all time public access to IFI reports.

Researcher Response: I retain my answer, "b."

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose answer, “c” to maintain the consistency of the assumptions used in selecting answers across the countries.
59. Does the executive make available to the public an explanation of the conditions associated with assistance from donor countries?

Comment:
The government of Azerbaijan does not present all the conditions of such assistances, and there is no law requiring the government to present such information. The public has little access to donor countries reports and, since it is considered a prerogative of the government to release this information, little information is provided by the donor countries themselves.

Peer Reviewer One Comment:

Peer Reviewer Two Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “d.” Such explanations could be found in the budget documents only 2 years ago. Now, no information on conditions associated with donor country assistance is presented.

Researcher Response: Because objectively donor assistance reduced last two year.
I keep my answer “c.”

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose answer, “c” to maintain the consistency of the assumptions used in selecting answers across the countries.
60. Does the executive make available to the public a summary that describes the budget and its proposals?

a. Yes, it provides a summary that is very informative.
b. Yes, it provides a summary that is somewhat informative.
c. Yes, but the summary is not very informative.
d. No, it does not provide a summary.
e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Peer Reviewer One Comment:

Peer Reviewer Two Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “c.” Not The summary only the budget law is published Beside that it is very difficult for ordinary people to have access to the summary.

Researcher Response: Yes, we can chose “c.”

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose answer, “c” to maintain the consistency of the assumptions used in selecting answers across the countries.

61. Does the executive publish a “citizens budget” or some non-technical presentation intended for a wide audience that describes the budget and its proposals?

a. Yes, it publishes a citizens budget that is very informative.
b. Yes, it publishes a citizens budget that is somewhat informative.
c. Yes, but the citizens budget is not very informative.
d. No, it does not publish a citizens budget.
e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Comment:

Peer Reviewer One Comment:

Peer Reviewer Two Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “c.” Because some not all definitions are provided on the law, but first, it lack important details, second, no ordinary people can have access to the law. Beside that, the government institutes have never presented the glossary to the public when the budget proposal is discussed.

Researcher Response: I retain in my position: “c.” Access in law exists.

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose answer, “c” consistent with researcher’s response.
64. Are citizens able in practice to obtain financial information on expenditures for individual programs in a format that is more highly disaggregated than that which appears in the executive’s budget proposal if they request it (for example, from a ministry or agency)?

a. In practice, highly disaggregated information is available to the public for all programs except those considered related to national security or military intelligence.

b. In practice, highly disaggregated information is available to the public for programs representing at least two-thirds of, but not all, expenditures.

c. In practice, highly disaggregated information is available to the public for programs representing less than two-thirds of expenditures.

67. Does the executive release to the public its timetable for preparation of the executive’s budget proposal (that is, a document setting deadlines for submissions from other government entities, such as line ministries or subnational government, to the ministry of finance or whatever central government agency is in charge of coordinating the budget’s formulation)?

   a. Yes, a detailed timetable is released to the public.
   b. Yes, a timetable is released, but some details are excluded.
   c. Yes, a timetable is released, but it lacks important details.
   d. No, a timetable is not issued to the public.
   e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Citation:
A common timetable is codified in the Law of the Azerbaijan Republic on Budgetary System. However, this timetable is not complete. There are several steps to the budget process, and their timetables are not released to the public. There are, however, some suitable interviews with official persons.

Comment:

80. Does the legislature have authority in law to amend the budget presented by the executive?

a. Yes, the legislature has unlimited authority in law to amend the budget.
b. Yes, the legislature has authority in law to amend the budget, with some limitations.
c. Yes, the legislature has authority in law to amend the budget, but its authority is very limited.
d. No, the legislature does not have any authority in law to amend the budget.
e. Not applicable/other (please comment).

Comment:
The Parliament has the right to advise the executive to make amendments to the budget proposal, but it is not authorized to make any amendments. Azerbaijan is a presidential republic and the president has the right to decline/veto laws approved by Parliament.

Researcher's Response to this Question was "d."

Peer Reviewer One Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “b.” Pursuant to Article 8 and 17 of the Internal Charter of the National Assembly of the Republic of Azerbaijan, the legislative authority has the right to make amendments to the draft Budget. www.millimeclis.az/?/az/content/39.

Peer Reviewer Two Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “c.” The Parliament has authority in law to amend the budget but its authority is very restricted. There is not any case that the parliament has amended the budget proposed by the executive.

Researcher Response: The legislature does not have any clear authority in law to amend the budget. The Internal Charter does not have the status of a law. We keep our choice, “d.”

IBP Comment: IBP editors chose answer, “d” to maintain the consistency of the assumptions used in selecting answers across the countries.
81. What is the most detail provided in the appropriation (expenditure budget) approved by the legislature?

   a. The approved budget includes program-level detail.
   b. The approved budget includes departmental totals and some additional details (for instance, sub-department totals or major programs).
   c. The approved budget includes only departmental totals.
   d. The approved budget includes less information than departmental totals.

The budget expenditures in Azerbaijan do not include program level detail. However, department level details are provided.

Peer Reviewer One Comment:

Peer Reviewer Two Comment: A more appropriate response to this question would be “d.” Because no all expenditures includes the department level. For instance, it is almost impossible to find what departments are spending “Protecting of Forests and Re-Production Fund” expenditures.

Researcher Response: We keep our answer “c.”
