Section Two: The Executive's Budget Proposal

Notes on abbreviations:

BY = budget year (year for which the budget proposals are being made)

BY+1 = one year beyond the budget year

BY-1 = one year before the budget year

Please mark your answer by placing the appropriate letter in the box to the right of the question. For all answers marked "not applicable/other," please provide a brief explanation indicating either why the answer choices provided are not applicable or why another response would be more appropriate.

The Executive's Budget Proposal
Estimates for the Budget Year and Beyond
1. Does the executive's budget or any supporting budget documentation present expenditures for the budget year that are classified by administrative unit (that is, by ministry, department, or agency)? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>All expenditures are classified by administrative unit.</li> <li>Expenditures are classified by administrative unit, but some small units are not shown separately.</li> <li>Expenditures are classified by administrative unit, but a significant number of units are not shown separately.</li> <li>No expenditures classified by administrative unit are presented.</li> <li>Not applicable/other (please comment).</li> </ol> Citation: Comment:  The purpose of Questions 1-55 is to evaluate that information which governments make available to the public during the time that the executive's budget proposal and its supporting documentation are under consideration in the legislature, prior to the legislature's approval of the budget. The executive's budget proposal and its supporting documents are sometimes known as the country's "annual consolidated budget presentation." In Sudan, the executive sent ministerial budgets to the legislature for consideration in September 2006. These documents were followed by the following additional documents [Government Corporations and Departments Proposals, the National Development Budget and the States Development Budget] in November 2006. However, none of these documents were available to the public. This is regrettable given that the Ministry of Finance maintains a functioning website, and documents could be made available to the public by posting on the website at little or no expense to the ministry. Given the lack of public availability of the annual consolidated budget presentation, Questions 1-55 have been marked "d," (with the exception of a few questions which have only three possible response options. These questions have been marked "b"). Peer Reviewer One Comment: Peer Reviewer Two Comment:	d

In Sudan, there are three budgets: namely, the General Budget, Corporation Budget and Development Budget prepared annually by the Executive passed by the Legislature but not made available to the public. Individuals could access the budget documents like academics, bureaucrats working in the government other than the Ministry of Finance and National Economy. Some of the Departments and Units in the Ministry of Finance and National Economy hardly possess copies of the budget documents. It appears that the budget is more or less treated as a confidential document kept only by a trusted few. Also detailed information with respect to interest rates on debts and volume of the debts are not openly and clearly addressed in the budgets. Moreover, the budget process is also constrained. For example, the Legislature has little authority to amend military budget because some items in the budget related to security are not discussed by the parliament.

The availability of any budgetary document depends on the status of the person asking for it. The governmental bodies have the authority to get these documents, however they have to submit an official letter to the Deputy of the Ministry of Finance. Researchers belonging to Universities and research institutions allowed studying these documents in the Ministry buildings, but not to photocopy it or take it home. They also have to submit an official letter. These documents are not available for the public, in particular journalists. Very important thing is that the public relations are playing a very important role in Sudan, therefore with some public relations you can get what you want. For example if you have some friends or relatives working in the Ministry of Finance then they can bring you the document you want. This is what usually the journalists depend on.

A very clear problem in the Ministry of Finance and most of Sudanese governmental institutions is the documentation and inefficiency and chaos. For example all reports are not coming on time, like the quarterly report come after one or two month (say the report from the first quarter of the year is coming by Mai, etc.) and maybe you will not find any reserved copy.
