

How much budget implementation data are counties making available online? March 2017

Counties should make the following budget documents available to the public after the budget is approved and is being implemented:

- Approved County Budget Estimates by July 21,
- County Budget Review and Outlook Papers (CBROPs) in November, and
- First Quarter Budget Implementation Reports late October.